

The GRACIES®

The Gracies provide a special opportunity for our industry to come together to honor individual achievement as well as programming by, for and about women across all media platforms. The only awards show of its kind, the Gracie Awards are named for one of America's best-loved comedienne, the late, great Gracie Allen. Gracie's dedication to the entertainment industry and her craft opened doors for future generations of females, which is who we honor today. The Gracies have been giving women a platform for more than 45 years.
